"You say
You want a Revolution."

Lennon/McCartney

Ours has been called
The generation of change.
Now as we leave the Regulated, disciplined,
Chaperoned shelter
Of Bulkeley ...

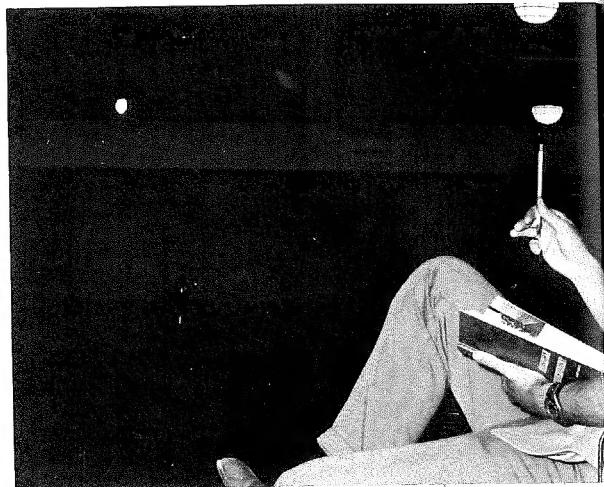

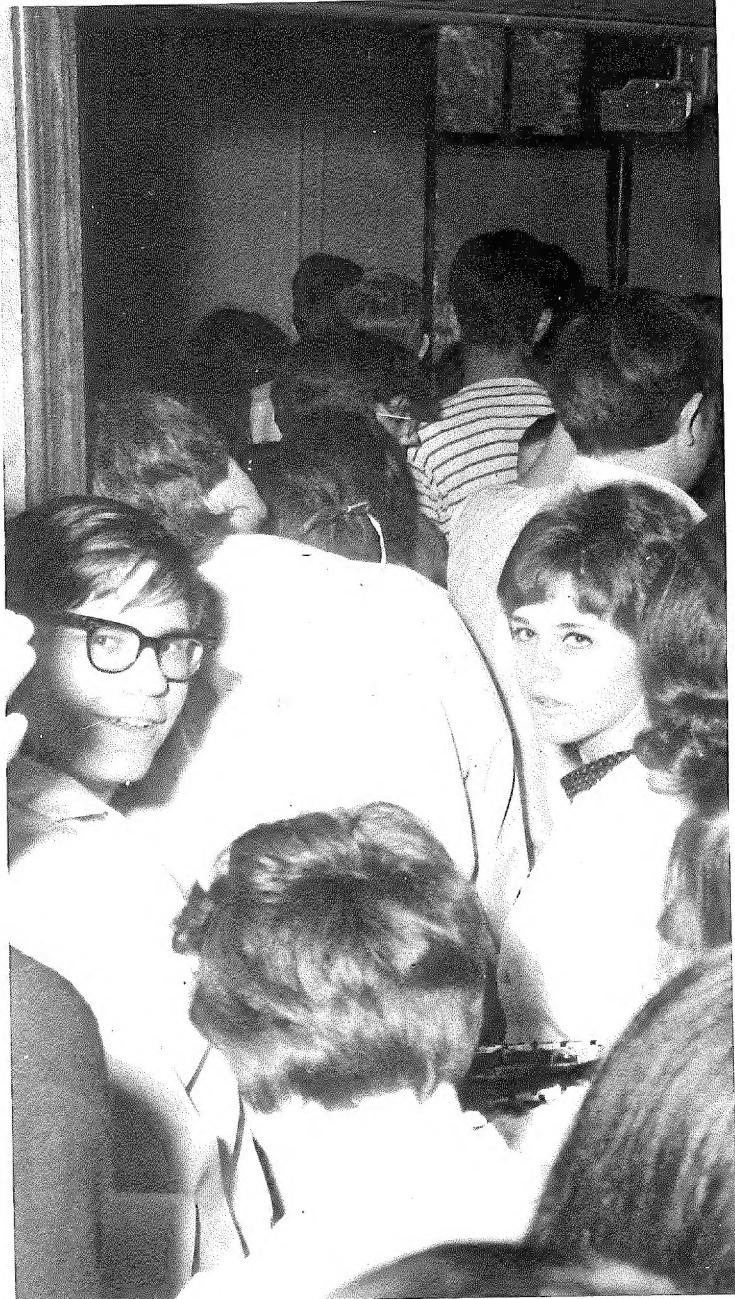

... We see not only
What we must change,
But how we have changed,
Physically,
Intellectually, Emotionally.

To a large extent,
We owe these changes,
Our inner revolutions,
To our years
At Bulkeley.

Despite crowded classes,
Sessions in remade cloakrooms,
Sardined hallways,
And an overwhelming
Competition for a place
Not only in Bulkeley,
But in the world,
We have tried
To prepare ourselves
For the future.

Together

We greet the dawning

Of our lives.

Together

We embrace the Joys and sorrows

Of our destinies.

As we approach a new decade,
We see a new era
Of appearance and attitude
At B.H.S.
Girls in pants are not
An uncommon sight, and even a few
Bearded faces can be seen
Among the crowds of book-laden students.

minds open;

be students, open,
pretend.

But even as A more relaxed
Atmosphere of learning
Is being tested
At Bulkeley,
We still see signs
Of the old,
Regimented order.

Beyond the old,
Sturdy walls
Of B.H.S.
Lies a metropolitan world
Shaken by turmoil
And strife.

We,
As individuals,
Have yet to learn How to adapt
Our ideals
And cope with
The problems that face
Our generation.

We must Keep our minds open;
Truly,
We must Always be students,
Ready
To listen,
To learn,
To comprehend.

Ours is Not a revolution
Of violence,
But rather
One of Understanding.

To the youth of the world
And the ideals they cherish;
To the youth of Biafra
And their conviction that no people should be dominated by another;
To the youth of Prague
And their battle for the right of free thought and speech;
To the youth of Northern Ireland
And their struggle for religious equality;
To the youth of America
And their belief that the old ways are not always the right ways . . .

... To all young people;
To their hope
For brotherhood and understanding
Among all men;
To their individual revolutions
For the good of mankind.

"Tis education forms the common mind:
Just as the twig is bent
The tree's inclined."

Alexander Pope

Though he sympathizes
With our problems,
Presides
Over our class meetings
And psyches out
At our class functions,
Honorary member-Class of '70,
May not be leaving Bulkeley
With this year's seniors.
Novice administrative intern,
Mr. Marley,
Might stay on
To be advisor
And pal for Many graduating classes to come

Housed in a former storeroom,
His work relieving
Some of the problems
Of overpopulation,
Mr. Scelza,
Recruited as a
Second vice-principal, Takes on
More than he bargained for,
As do all of the More experienced administrators.
Through the ups and downs
Of BHS pressures,
The "men up front" are tried and tested—
Yet Bulkeley affairs
Run on smoothly.

Miscellaneous messages,
Bulkeley's

They are Invaluable members

A Stroke of Expression

Mildred Fontane

Dana Gordon

Today's artistic free expression
Has even come to Bulkeley.
Modernized courses in ceramics
Are now taught in strange conjunction With Renaissance art,
And though concepts of color,
Style and approach evolve,
Art students know they must Appreciate past culture before
Applying its basics to modern art.

This year,
All senses are tuned to music.
And history sets the beat.
Painting, sculpture and literature,
People, places and dates
Harmonize with the study
Of musical greats from Bach to the Electric Prunes.
Seeing each piece in its own historical setting,
Students can really get the "feel"
Of good music.

"Apply Heat — "

Our very own

On-the-job-cheering
At every game,
He's always ready,
Always there,
To support our teams

And here at home,
Nurse Perrino separates
The feverish
From the fakers, Occasionally escaping from
The sick-room crowds
To the "safety" of her
Sex-education classrooms.

Though last year's plan for smaller classes
Can no longer handle the ever-growing student body, Instructors still find just enough space to Dribble, tumble, ping-pong, volley, run, and exercise,
And even to take on a few PE-hungry people
During their study halls.

"Autumn to winter, winter into spring,
Spring into summer,
summer into fall,-
So rolls the changing year,
and so we change;
Motion so swift,
we know not that we move."

D. M. M. Araik

Summertime:
In the three Free months Before their Final
High-school year,
Upcoming seniors
Have time
To think,
To act.
In different ways,
Decisions are made.

Some feel
The urge
To move,
To experience,
To evaluate.
Others relax—“Conserving their Strength” for The all-important “Moment of Action.”

But,
As September
Closes in,
Even the most ardent “energy-savers”
Begin to stir—
A time for change
Is drawing near.

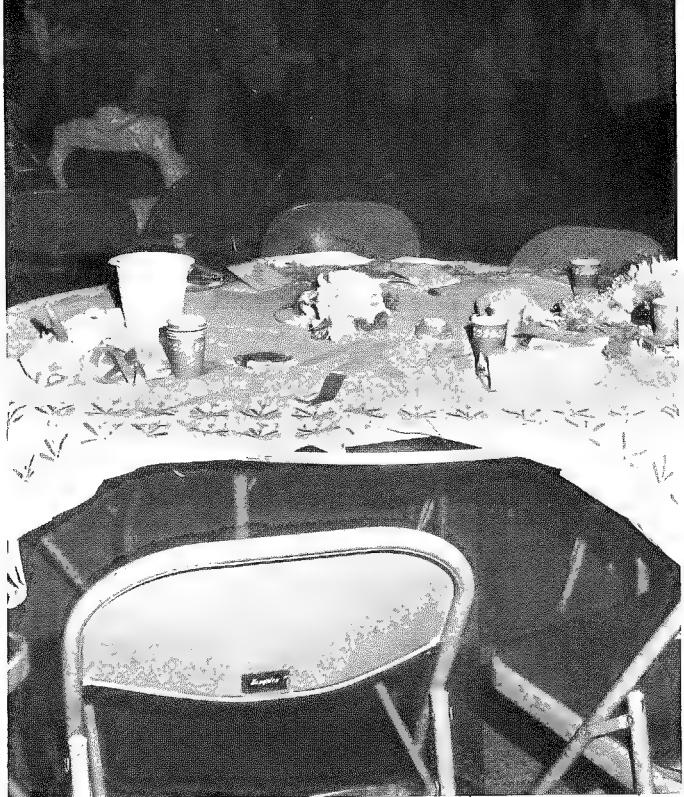

Autumn:
Falling leaves
Unveil
Demanding issues:
Racial trouble
Within the school,
Peace movements
Throughout the nation,
What colleges
To apply to,
Which students
To depend on.
"Energy-savers" Exhaust their Strength-supplies,
And last summer's
"Movers" can see
The Revolution-road
Stretching out
For miles.

Only football games remain as Rest times from thought,
Short returns to summer-mood—
Never to come again;
The change is almost complete.

Winter:
With crises past,
Pressure relaxes and Seniors breath easier.
Now is the Time for fun:
Excitement at Basketball games,
Glamour at
The 1970
Winter formal,
The renewal of An old tradition,
Laughs at Torch Nite,
Tranquillity at Christmas when Draperies of snow
Mute the shouts
Of distant sledgers—

Diffusing carols into Shimmers of sounds.
Though a period
Of rest,
Winter melts
Into spring—
The end of One change,
The beginning
Of others.

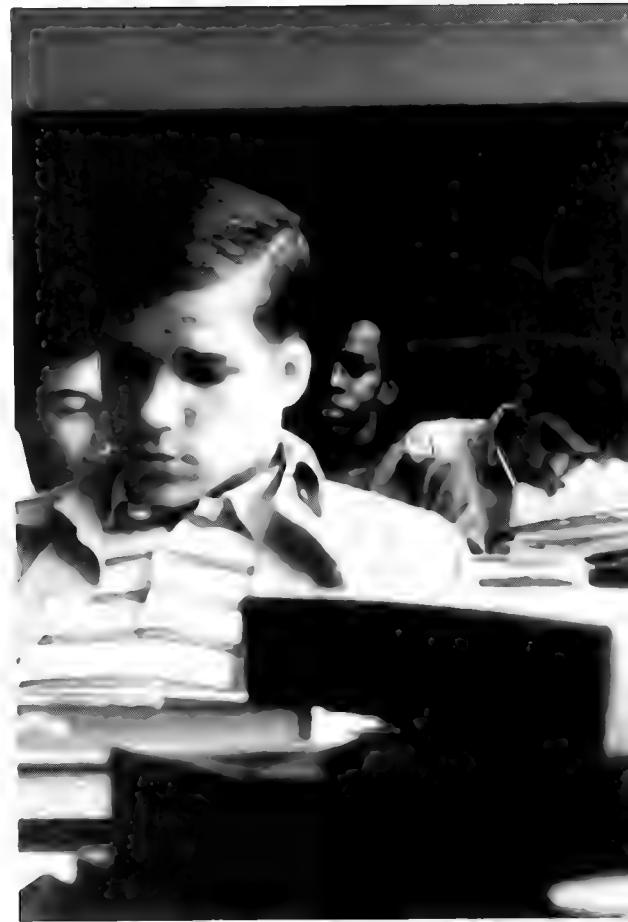

Spring:
Rivulets of Used-to-be-snow
Carry the final answers
To autumn's questions.
Last exams, and College returns Finalize the Year's revolution.

With light clothing
And lighter hearts,
Soon-to-be-graduates
Know where to go
And what to do.
Among friends
(Of both sexes), Enjoying the Season's activities,
They leave
With regrets, Drawn into The whirl of Tomorrow's living.

The year has spun,
Change has just begun.

Work + Fun = Yearbook

Late nights and early mornings,
With pens, briefcases, or cameras,
The editorial and business staffs

Work from deadline to deadline
With intermittent sighs
And unending confusion.
What keeps them going?
"Food, glorious food!"
Whether sneaking out

To snitch sweet goodies
From bulging lunch bags,
Staff members are Always out for

Storing up "extra energy"
To guard against the drafts,
To bust out of the bathroom,
To shout over the radio,
And oh, yes,
To put out the Yearbook, too.

Working so closely

And parts of BHS,
Yearbookers come

Mass Suicide Unfolds Anti-Protest Protest

Time has seen many forms of protest. Among them have been the Boston Tea Party, and more recently, Moratorium Day. But have any of these protests actually resulted in a great change, or have any of them made a large dent in the fender of humanity? Unfortunately, no. So with this in mind the most mammoth of all gigantic shows of discontent is to be called "Mass Suicide." A date has been chosen when people are to march, head high, hand in hand into the bitter cold waters

Buggy Whip Derby Association's 48th Annual Convention.

At this point a few suggestions, for those of you who plan to attend: an ice pick and/or a flame thrower would be a handy tool to have since the water at this time of the year is quite hard. And for those of you who are light and do not sink easily, for the benefit of time, please pack a small lunch.

Establishment vs Reestablishment

Accomplishment—
The Student Council aim.
1970 may see
Old systems remolded
To fit new needs.

This year,
Operation BB introduces
A revolutionary concept of better
Student-faculty relations
Through the discussion of Mutual problems.
Some say "Worthless," Others "Great,"
But the agreement that
"It's a first step,"
Indicates that

Reading the meter,
Snapping the picture—
It's an easy shot for The Photography Club.
Then into the dark-room!
With solution-dirty hands,
They turn out
Expertly developed photos,
Especially of this year's Scenic spot—
The local junk yard.

Project Concern

"Getting involved" is the Governing force behind Hartford's JCC.
Concerned with city problems Related to high school students,
They serve to bridge the gap Between city government and school.
Student parking,
Student lounges,
Recreational facilities and Night dances
Head this year's list of Workable objectives.
Sharing in the work and Achievement are Five competent Bulkeley councilmen.

Snap-Shots

Black and white,
Christian and Jew,
Working, feeling,
Understanding together,
Forming a basis of trust,
The new Human Relations Committee
Is inspired by idealism—
Thoughts voiced over the PA system
In speeches and prayers
Of peace
On the second anniversary of Martin Luther King's death.
Fund-raising for Greater Hartford Charitable Organizations and Volunteer work at the State's Human Rights and Opportunities Commission
Bring members one step closer to Sensitivity, understanding and
More human relations.

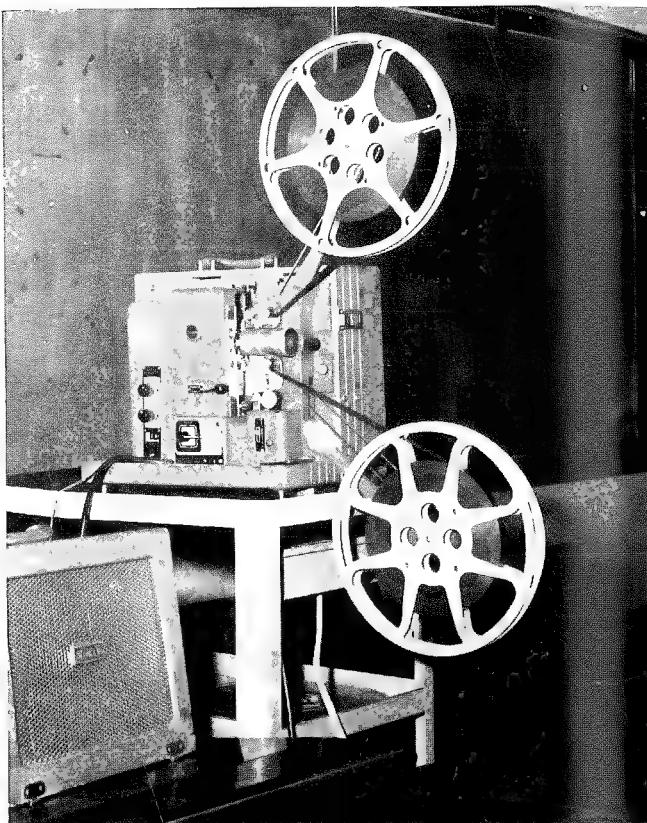

Session in Sensitivity

"Devoted" . . .

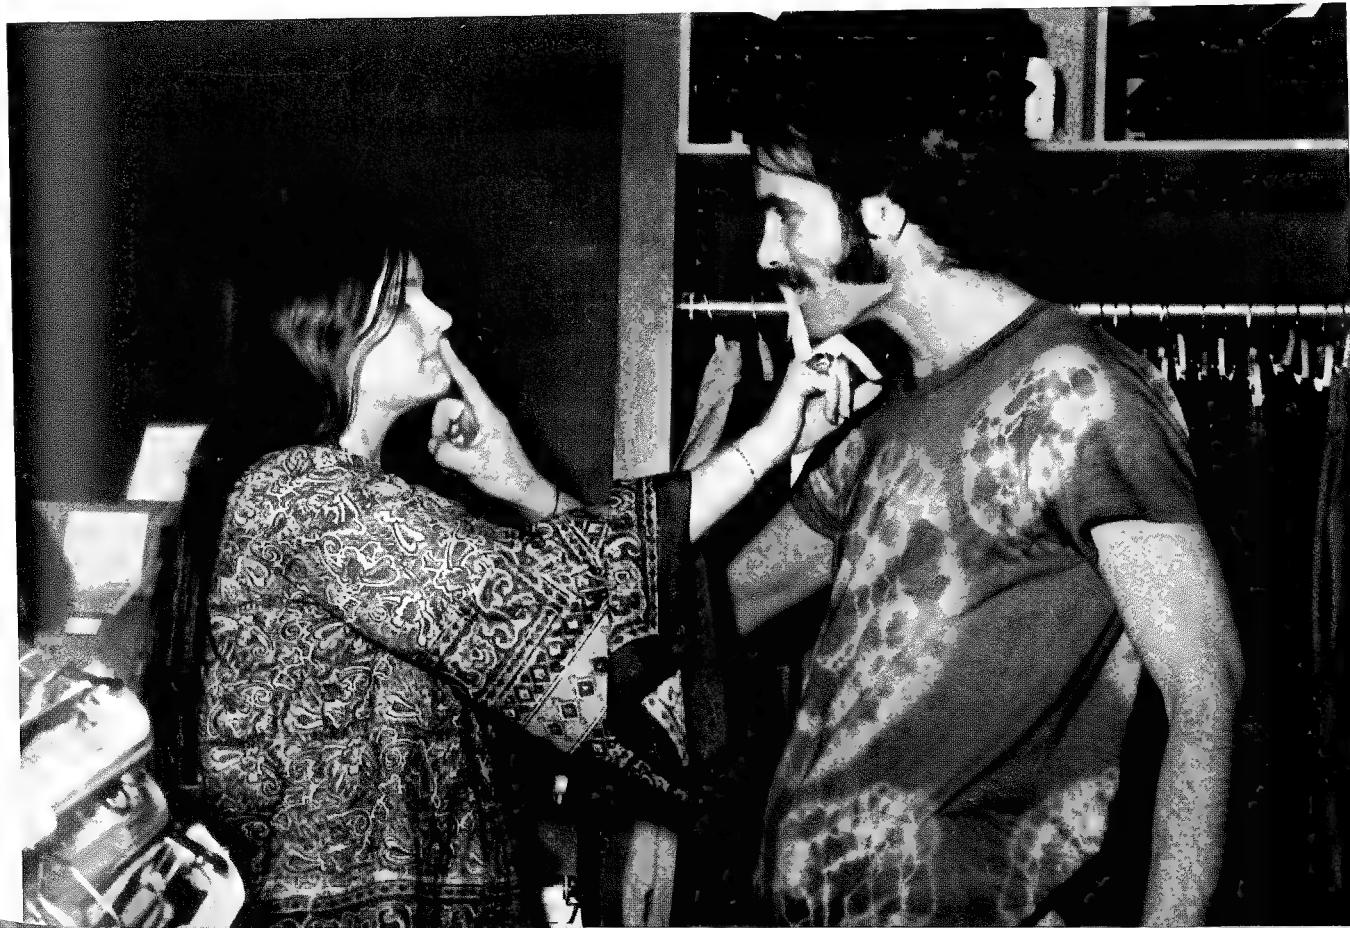

. . . describes
The Audio-Visual squad—
Giving up free time
To supply classes
With educational aids:
Projectors—
Flickering through "Ocean Life"
Or "Ireland";
Record players—
Grooving on anything from Simon and Garfunkel to Traditional German carols;
Tape recorders—
Winding Tennessee Williams
Or exercises in speech.

Hot Rod to Change

Wheeling away from Rusty disciplinary systems and Dusty curriculum requirements,
The Co-op commission,
Consisting of concerned
Students, parents and faculty,
Gives a lift
To Bulkeley with BB I and II.

Tongues of Many Talents

Modern Langagers have discovered
There's more to communication
Than hot air.
Exploring the beauties of the Civilized past at Wadsworth Atheneum,
They see Thoughts conveyed in Paintings and sculpture.
Sampling national delicacies,
And even all-American ones,
They get the message of Good taste,
Even if they miss the Cultural importance of Whatever they're munching.

It's time to research
A day on the life of A library aid.
Sacrificing time
During and after school,
The enduring aides
Slip, mend, process and File books.
But that is not a Complete outline of Their abilities.
Further study will show
That they display
An artistic flair
On eye-catching
Bulletin boards.
If the overall hypothesis
Is favorable,
Then the research
Has been done Correctly.

Overdue Notice

Jazzing It Up

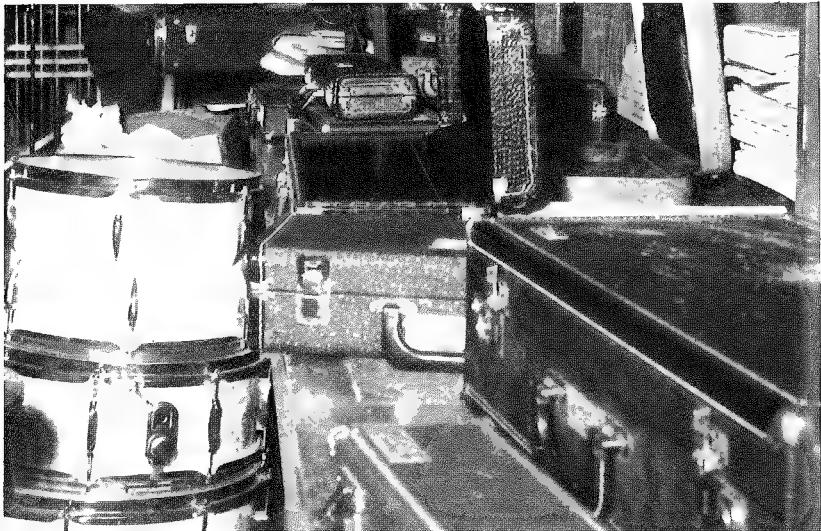

The stage band psyches up
Music lovers of all ages.
Rearranging popular hits,
The combo's sound
Carries a common note from
The grammar schools they visit
To pep rallies on Their own gym floor.

Thanks to an Enthusiastic
Elementary program,
BHS upbeat band
Has recruited
Inspired members.
This year
Together with HPHS,
The band composes
Plans for a Combined concert
At both schools,
In addition to Rousing, spirited Performances at Rallies and Football games.

Strings Lace Up Assemblies

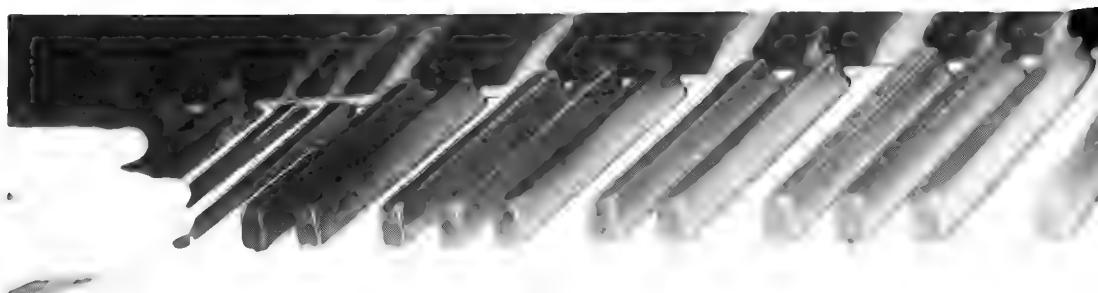

An easy transformation—
A flashy outdoor band
Magically changes into
A sophisticated, polished Orchestra.
The Aladdin's lamp here
Is the presence of Melodic stringed instruments.
Resource mornings are Hardly the same
Without that extra
Bit of glamour.

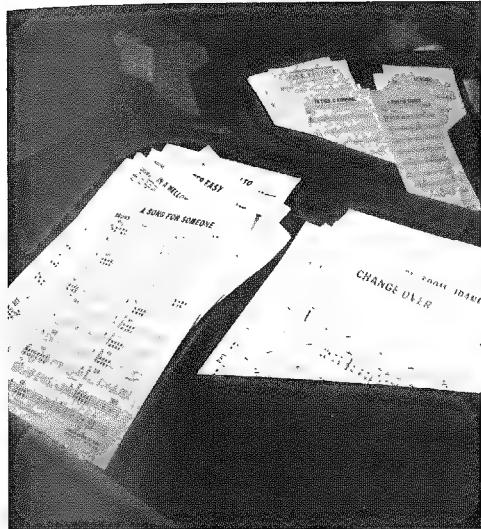

Alleluia !

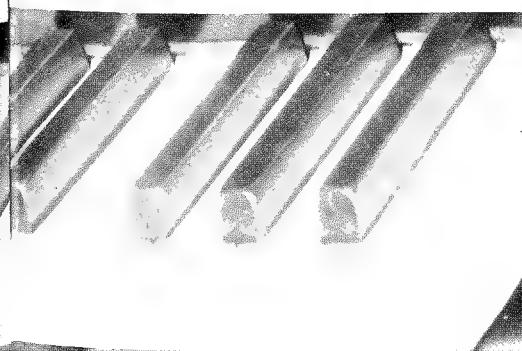

A harmony of voices,
The blending of Soprano and bass in a
Lavishly performed chorale—
A Gloria by Vivaldi—
A first for the Spring concert.
Despite strained
Vocal chords,
Nasty sore throats,
And tiresome
Practice hours,
The Bulkeley choir
Happily receives
Due applause for Each special performance.

Traditionally Best

In their distinguishing Maroon and white uniforms,
The Bulkeleyettes are a Nostalgic reminder of Bulkeley's heritage.
Singing at the usual assemblies—
The Honor Society Induction,
The Annual Spring Concert,
Performing in the community—
For the Newington Veteran's Hospital,
And the BHS nightschoolers,
These girls retain their Prestigious image,
Musically entertaining with Old favorites.

Brawn and Brains

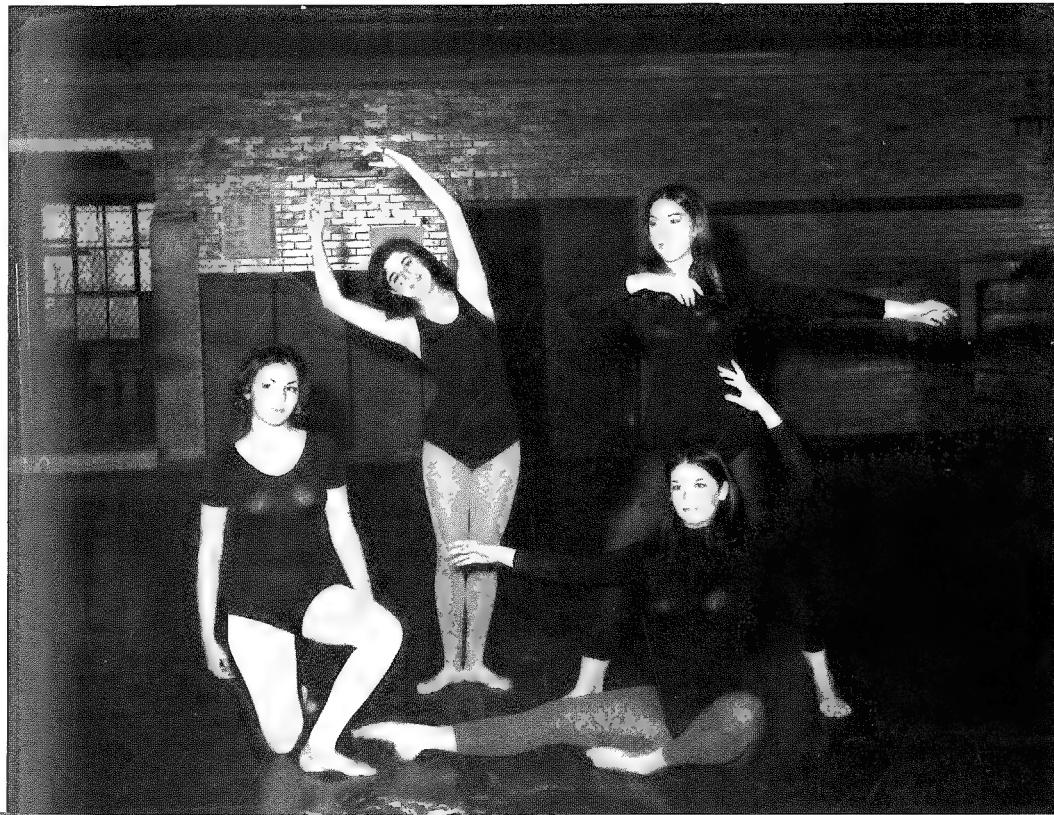

In an effort
To build School spirit,
Bulkeley's Boys' Club
Turns on with Wrestling tournaments,
Archery exhibitions,
Sports pros and Scholarship awards.
By crossing the Athletic with
The scholastic,
They give each boy
A chance to Do his thing.

Perfection in the Balance

Party to Service

The idea of giving
To Bulkeley—
Through a
Get-together for Freshman girls
In the fall,
A spicy dinner for Fathers and daughters
In the winter,
And a traditional Senior breakfast
In the spring—
Rounds out a
Busy school calendar.
The idea of giving
To the community—
Through a
Cheer drive to provide North-end youngsters with Warm, woolen mittens—
Holds the League
Loyal to its motto:
Service to all.

Despite aching muscles,
Fun-poking friends and Early mornings,
Five girls willingly
Sweat out sessions
In the Kienle Room
Three times a week
To gain poise and grace.
Stretching, Leaping,
Pliéing
To soft music,
They dance their Way to fitness.

Informational Injection

Readyng themselves for Nursing professions, Future Nurses get Microscopic views of Specialized branches
Of medicine from Experienced hospital personnel.
Local speakers,
Including Miss Burns
Of the City Health Department,
And tours of Both city hospitals,
Show the girls
Medicine's internal workings.

Focus on Fashion

Resource periods and Before school meetings
Are designed to give Homemaking Club members
The chance to Hear speakers on Fashion careers and Fashion design.
Cookie sales entice
Bulkeley gourmets,
Show off culinary abilities,
But, more importantly,
Give the girls
The funds to Taste fashion at Its capital,
New York.

Poverty and Pollution

Recent revelations
Prompt the Life-Science Club
To raise funds for Red Cloud Indian School,
An impoverished group
Here in the US.

A visit to the exhibit,
"Can Man Survive",
At the Museum of Natural History
Lifts the lid
On the cesspool of Local, urban problems.

Horn-Rimmed Glasses — Taboo

Under the guise of Long hair,
Bellbottom jeans and Rimless glasses,
Behind the impressive voice of Wilbur Smith,
Honor Society members
Secretly enjoy
Confusing the administration.
Hip on clothes
As well as studies,
Members maintain
A more mod image
Of a "brain".

Cyclamatelessly Sweet

For the starving multitude of Bulkeley students
Who find themselves short of energy
To tackle the day's workload,
Cookie sales provide the needed pick-up.
With Sumptuously gooey, chunky, chocolately cookies,
And
Chunky, nut-filled Brownie delights,
And
Angel light, just right cupcakes, Breakfastless Bulkeleyites get go-go-go,
(And a tasty excuse
To get out of study hall!)

57,867 petitions x
1,707 cramped hands x
2,003 inkless pens and pointless pencils x
1,934 radios tuned in February and March x
3 ditto machines faithfully working x

BULKELEY SCHOOL SPIRIT!

Sign Of The Times

February 14 is
The perfect time for Cupid to touch hearts.
Under mellow red lights,
Dancing to the soft music
Of the Al Jarvis orchestra,
New ties form and Old ones revive.
Enchanted by the Captivating atmosphere,
90 Bulkeley couples
Leave the all-too-short Evening with a Lasting memory.

Cupid Strikes Again

"Dance To The Music"

Amid cheers
For impending victories
Rings the sound of The Damn Yankees.
Led by cheerleading yells,
Throaty voices scream
"We want a victory"
In musical and Danceable sport-support
For their Soccer and football teams.

At the end of A long, quiet day,
Bulkeley students
Shuffle lazily Towards the Familiar gym doors.
Then the beat
Picks up.
Blaring music throbs.
Rhythmic clapping deafens—
All for deserving athletes
And winning seasons.
It's seventh period—
Rally time.

Good Vibrations

Feeling at home
In the Colosseum,
In the Sistine Chapel,
At Saint Peter's Cathedral,
And at the famous Trevi Fountain,
Bulkeley students
Toss coins to insure Another memorable visit
To this center of European culture.
Between trips to Sorento and Pompeii,
The BHS visitors
Easily mingle with Friendly Italian people
And pick up their language.
Yet they still find it Hard to say
Arivaderci Roma.

When In Rome . . .

Get Lost

"This is a Time, speed,
Distance rally—
With gimmicks!
Average speed—15 mph.
Begin.
Turn right.
Do it again.
First right after

Flashing light.
Left after the Avenue of the Queen.
Left at sand pile.
Stop and pick up a Friendly straw wrapper.
Begin again."
Lost yet?
That's the idea.

Is There A Doctor

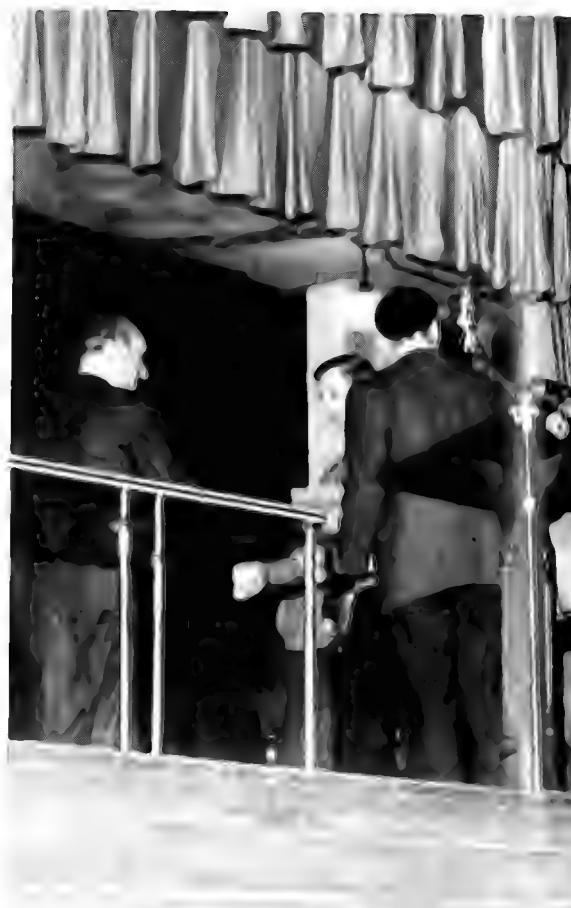

In Bulkeley's own Institute of Living,
Examines:
Four pair of healthy, high-stepping legs—
What marvelous muscle-tone!
Analyses:
High school toddlers who sing about
"Greasy Grimy Gopher Guts"—
Send them to Pediatrics!
Checks up on:
Muscial peaceniks and singing cheerleaders—
Such vocal chords!
And the diagnosis?
Delightfull

In The House?

Take A Letter

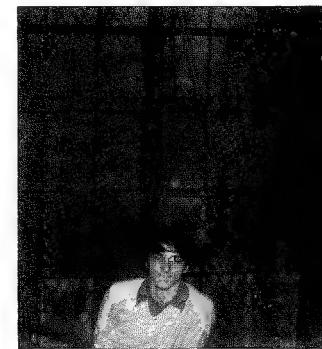

Dear distinguished athletes:
It is a
Bulkeley High School tradition
To honor its best sportsmen
At lettermen's assemblies,
To single out
Exceptional abilities in
All our sports.
You are to be admired
For your spirited effort
In making BHS a Winning school.
Thank you for All the hours of Practice and skillful play
That you have so
Unselfishly given
To Bulkeley.
Sincerely,
Class of '70.

Best

"She might get it."
"What about him?"
"How about what's-his-face!"
"That other one might—"
"Well, I'll bet on those two."
Though there's a lot of Speculation
About who'll be Awarded at the Annual Heritage Assembly,
This year,
Everyone wins with Laura Mirabello and Peter Petrella.
Honored with the Grace Garvin and Percy Fellows
Citations in '70,
They are, without doubt,
People you can Bet on.

Playing With Pros

After a year's experience
With Hartford Stage Company's Productions and discussions,
1970 playgoers
Take to Tech.
In dialogues with Directors and designers,
BHS critics discover the Backstage drama—
Lighting in A Delicate Balance
Construction in The Farce of Scapin, Painting in Misalliance.
In this year's long
After-the-play talks,
Students find
There's a lot to be said—
Technically speaking.

Katharine Houghton
Hypatia Tarleton

In frozen February,
The mood
In Moodis was Anticipation.
Though Frank Davis' Resort
Was cold and empty,
Inspecting seniors
Could picture themselves
Basking by the pool,
Munching fried chicken,
Lounging by the golf course,
Sipping cool drinks,
Galloping over the beach,
And just generally
Having fun on
That four-month-away,
Delicious day.
Why,
Just thinking about
This Bulkeley first
Was enough to Make a senior Wish that school were Out!

Checking Out The Outing

The Graduates

Remember—
When a senior Offered you an Elevator pass, or
A free lunch ticket
In invisible ink.

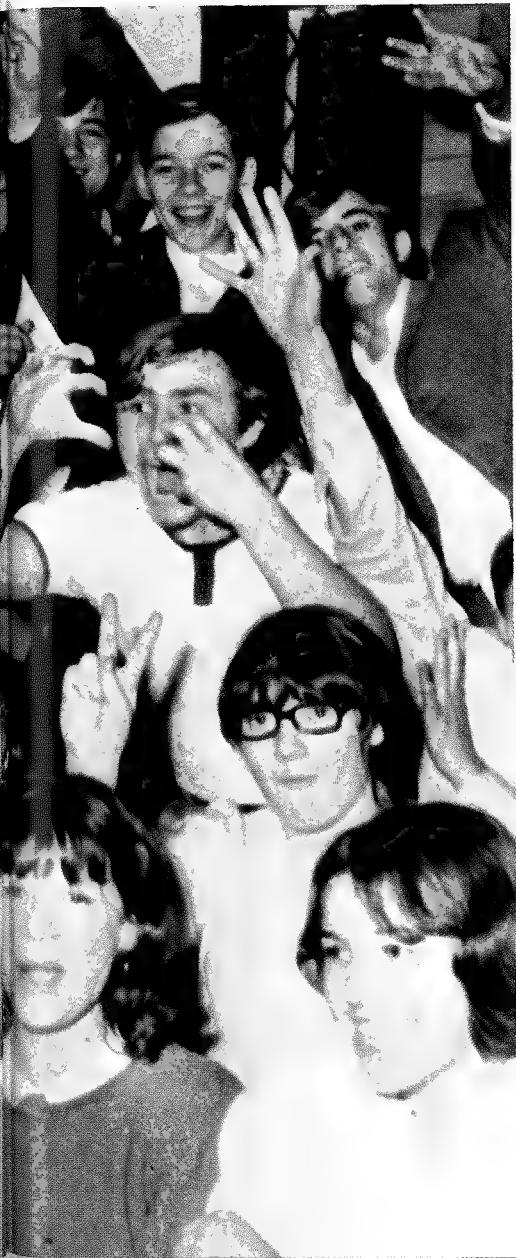

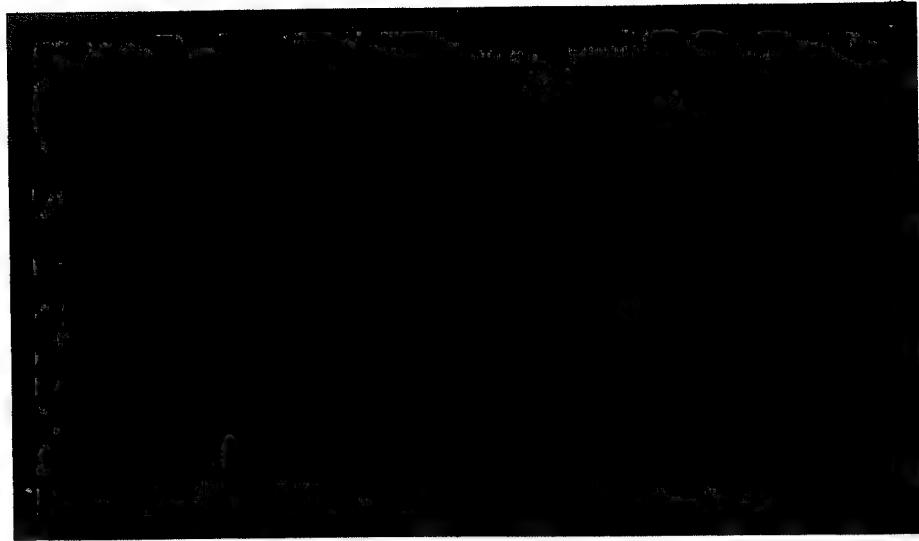

Remember—
Sitting in the Balcony of the auditorium,
Not being able To see or hear Anything, or Being on the third floor
When it was Raining or snowing.

Remember—
Getting that Small ring,
Finally being an Upperclassman, or Being measured for Cap and gown.

Bulkeley.

"Every man is the Builder of a temple, Called his body."

Henry David Thoreau

Soccer to 'Em

Wings out,
Center strong,
Bulkeley booters
Charge the goal
In strong formation.
Including the JV team
For the first time
Makes the players
Interchangeable, and Takes some pressure
Off the Varsity.

Hard work pays off.
Bulkeley's closely-knit team
Kicks away any doubt.
The final record
Is proof,
With 7-6-1 on the books.

Although the loss of Walter Kowalewski
Will be hard to bear,
Soccer men like Fumble-Fingers Gradante, and Co-ordinated Phil Dias
Will, hopefully,
Bring Bulkeley
As proud a record
In '71
As the booters did
In '70.

A winning spirit
Can tackle any Discouraging season.
Though exhausting practices
And tension filled
Weeks of play,
BHS tallied only two Hard-fought victories
Over Fitch and HPHS.

Soul Team

But the boys still have Soul power.
Spirit scores high and Ability is rewarded.
Selected for this year's All City Team are Mario Capasso and
Randy McKenney .
Senior Bruce Karakawicz
Also showed his Experience as co-captain and Quarterback of the team.
Hopes are that
This year's soul
Will be caught by Next year's team.

Love

As the winter is ending,
And the last snow is Shoveled away,
Bulkeley's tennis team
Swings into form.
Backing up
Senior Craig Miller,
Best individual player
On the team,
Is a hardworking and Aggressive group.
A winning season is
This year's potential;
For the netmen are Ready to serve up defeat
With a quick
Back-hand smash
To any team
Brave enough to Test their strength.

Burnt roads and Worn-out track shoes
Give evidence to the Hard work of the Cross country team
This year.
Over stoney driveways,
Through muddy parking lots,
Falling,
Getting up,
Running to prove themselves
Best in the state.
As they struggled to Pull up from a series of Heart-breaking losses,
Competition reigned high
On the team.

Roadrunners

Senior Mario Servidone and Junior Neal Moylan
Tugged for Team first place,
A good indication that,
When this year's top men leave,
The squad will continue
To run
Long, Hard, and
To win.

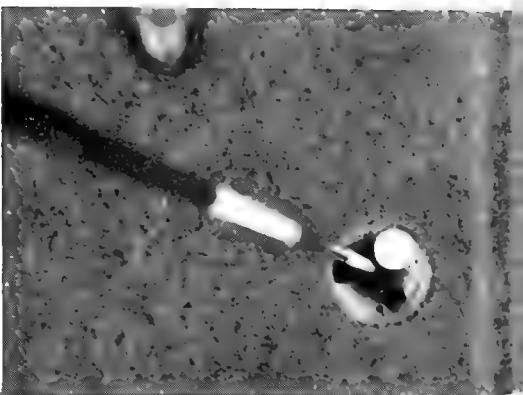

A strong, muscular arm
Stretches back, lets go, and
A twelve pound ball flies.
In a tight, coil action,
Another body turns, and,
In one explosive fling,
A discus sails
To break records.

Triple jumpers, long jumpers,
Distance runners, all of Bulkeley's experienced players,
Two of which are seniors
Mario Servidone and Craig Ogren.
Combine talents with Eager young runners,
To out-track
Any competition that comes Jogging towards them.

Widetracking

Jungle Jim's Swingers

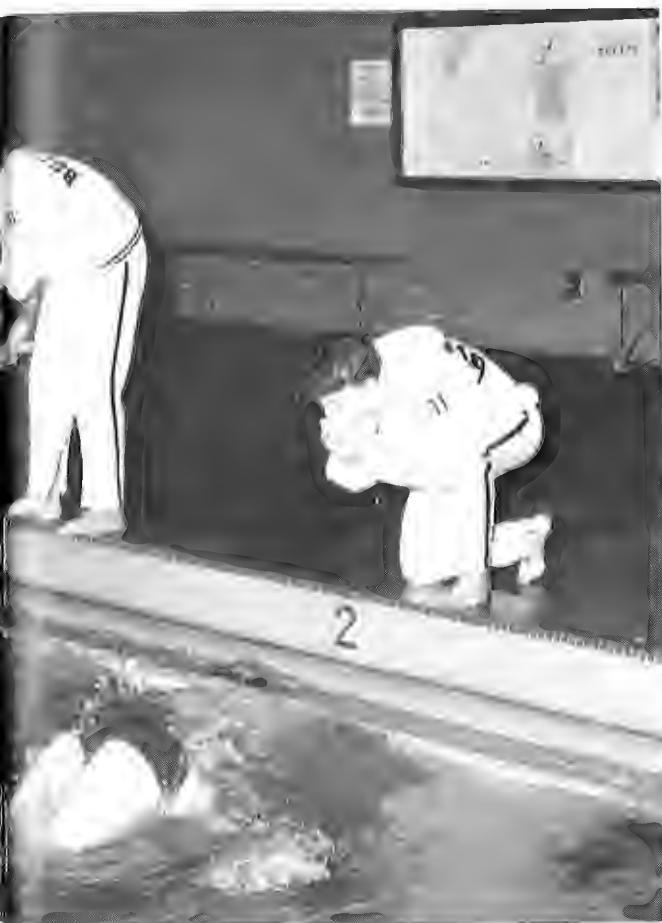

With a powerful stroke,
Bulkeley's golf guys
Tee off on the Familiar Goodwin green
Towards the state tourney.
Senior Robert Capobianco
Sets a driving course
For returning lettermen
Tom Koza,
Ted Sposito and Ed Phillips
To follow to victory.
Caddied by Coach
Jungle Jim Sutor,
This year's bogey men
Foresee a successful season as An easy putt.

With a 14-2 record possible and
A 13-3 record probable,
Our frogmen dip into action
To break all existing school records,
Propelled forward by deep team spirit.
The class L finals are only a stroke away.

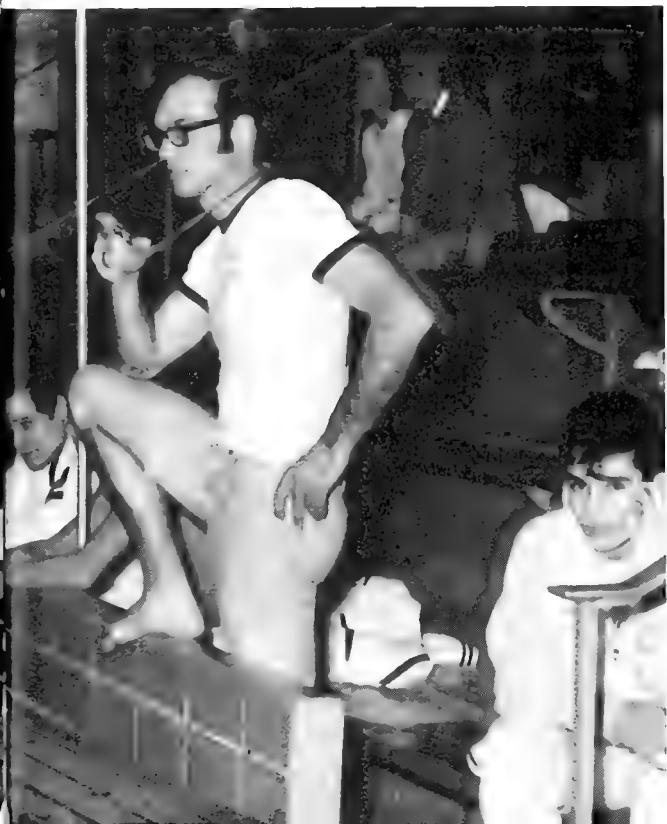

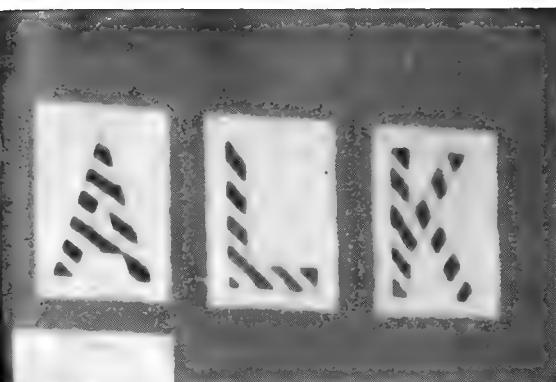

Plunge Power

Motivating the team this year is
The HPHS meet where the Strong junior backbone gets a chance
To prove its winning skill.
To relax them at gruelling practices,
Coach Brophy limbers up
With math computation.
The team swam a remarkable 420,000 yards
During practices to end a victorious year.
(Ask any Bullfrog.)

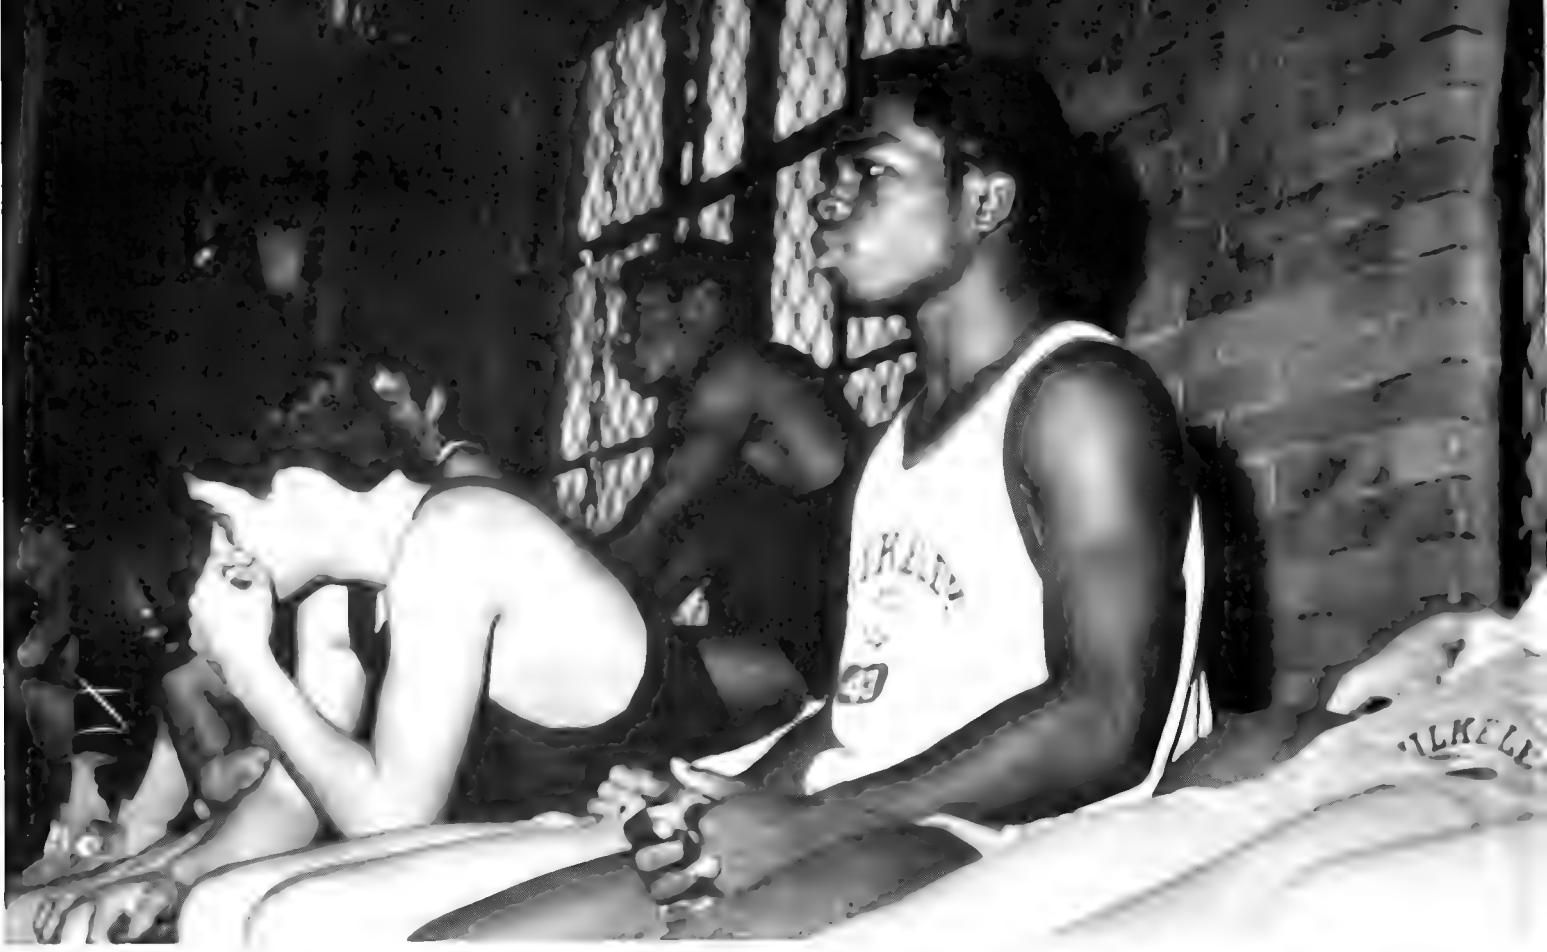

Burning Rubber

Hurdled forward by Experienced Coach Feeley,
Senior veterans
Two-miler Paul Vinci, Miler Mario Servidone, and Hurdler Craig Ogren
Shorten the mileage
To a CDC victory.
Added strength from Promising juniors
Lifts up
Bulkeley's
Indoor track record.

"Jam up and jelly tight"— Relaxing opening to a Tough game and Overall season.
An uptight young squad
Is battling to Gain experience in a Formidable league

Dribble To The Beat

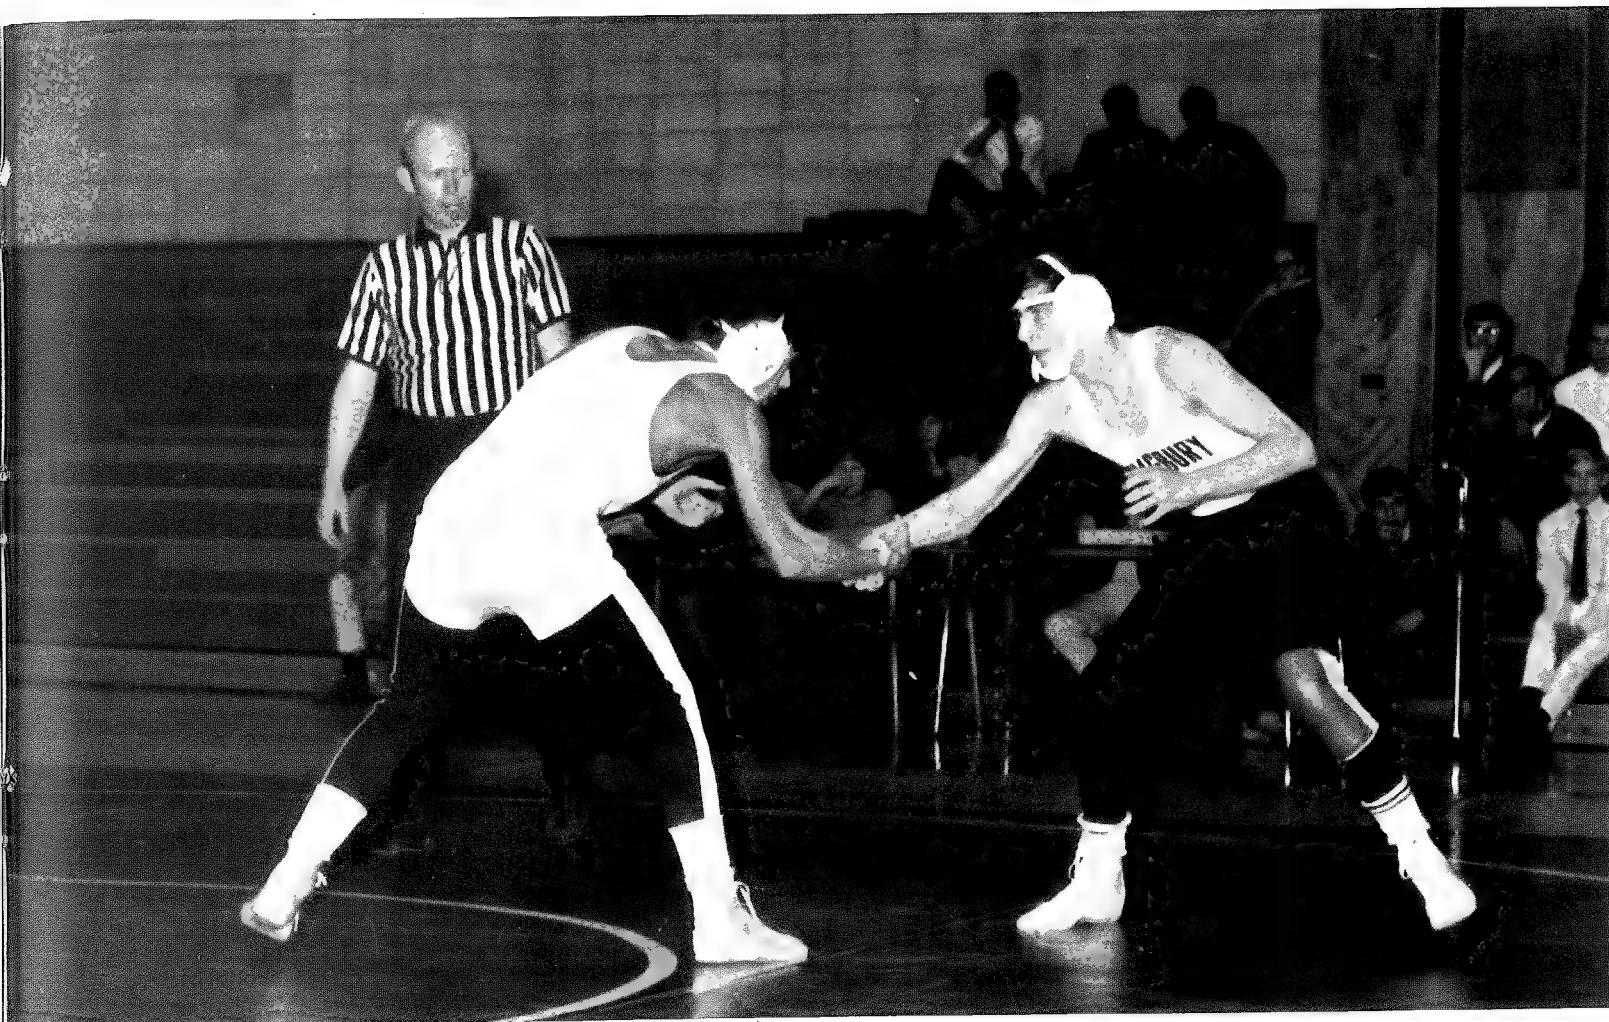

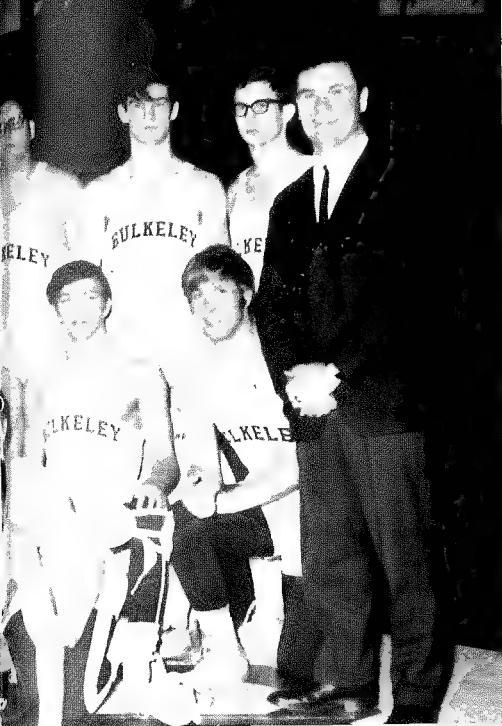

This year's discouraging record
Has not fouled
The young team's spirit.
Inexperienced defense,
Unaggressive offense
May explain
This year's losses, but . . .
This is the year for learning.
With some strong junior hustlers,
Led by Jimmy Kapral, DiChiara's "shining light",
The whole team
Rallies to score points
Towards a future winning season.

Double chicken wing,
Ball and chain,
Three-quarter Nelson—
BHS holds on a
Triumphant 10-3-1 season.
From the 98 pound weight class,
To the unlimited class of Power-Packed Pitt,
Coach Vertefeuille's
Famous take-down drills
Pin down individual victories
On the way to the state finals
At Wesleyan College.

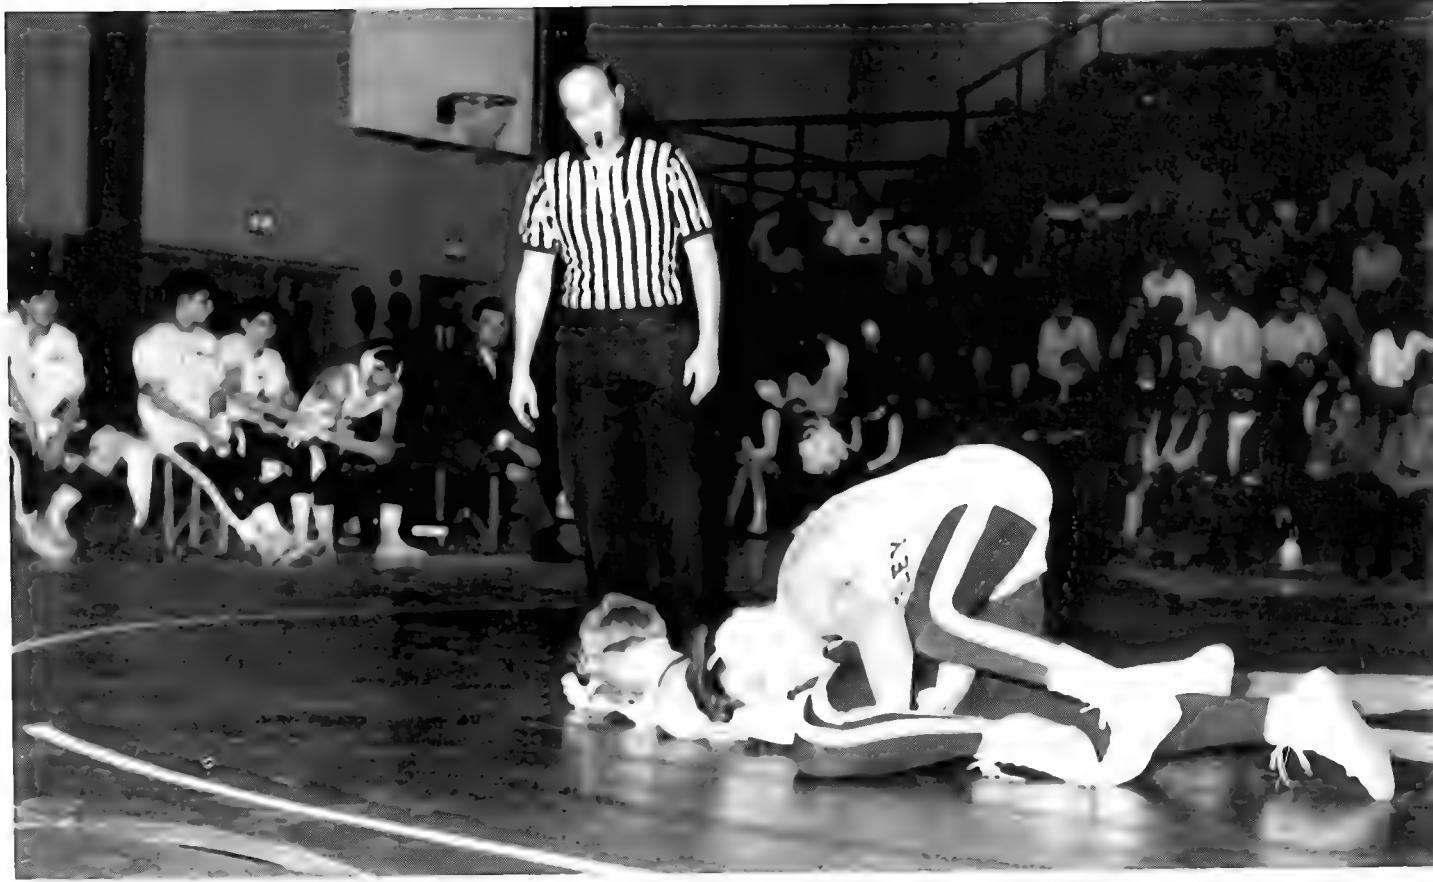

Weighs To Win

Kid Kowal,
Sporting the best team record, and Muscle Milward,
Placing high with speed and agility,
Put stiff practice to work
In a fine effort.
Not escaping deserved praise
Are Gerry Gengras's exciting attacking style
And Paul Pitt's devastating pins.

That such a young team
Is so skillfully and totally together
Is enough in itself to Make BHS proud of its Prime wrestling team and
"The finest wrestling season Bulkeley has ever had."

Catch That Action

Lining up at bat
For a hard-hitting season,
Slugging veterans Team up with Eager young rookies
In spring training for Grand-slammimg victories.
Seniors Sal Brancato,
Bruce Karatkiewicz,
Dom Ciotto, and Richard Lopa
Return to the plate
To drive in Coach Kokinis' dream for A winning team.
Team achievement
At the top of the order
Will bring home the CDC championship.

Madame Butterflies

Stroking the water
In graceful style,
The girls swim circles
Around opponents
Who invade their waters.
Co-captains Kim Meyer and Denise Koplowitz
Push off the squad
To a hopeful season.

Opponents cringe under
The forceful,
Spiking, aggressive,
But beautiful
Female volleyball team.
Their inspiration is the CIAC regional playdowns,
The state finals at CCSC,
As well as their loyal
Male spectators.

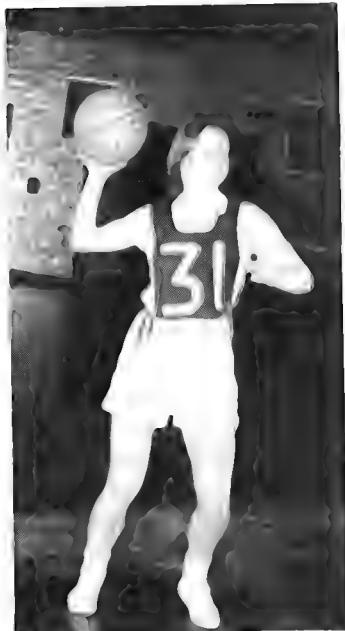

Volley For Serve

Basket Weaving

Pass-weave in,
Pass-weave out,
Drive and shoot.
Bulkeley's feminine approach
To its third city
Basketball championship.
With the combined efforts of Senior Helga Eisele and Junior Mary Clough,
Who together scored 105 points,
The team rallies to prove That there is Power in the Weaker sex.

A low pitched voice,
A flair for gymnastics
And an energetic spirit
Are the necessary skills
For cheerleading.
Our ever-smiling
Varsity cheerleaders
Enthusiastically coax
Even the shyest freshmen
Into cheers of support
For a deserving sport.

"Got The Spirit? —

Bulkeley is proud of its Unique J.V. squad
Who spiritedly carries
The title of being the Only J.V. squad
In the city.
And a good one at that.

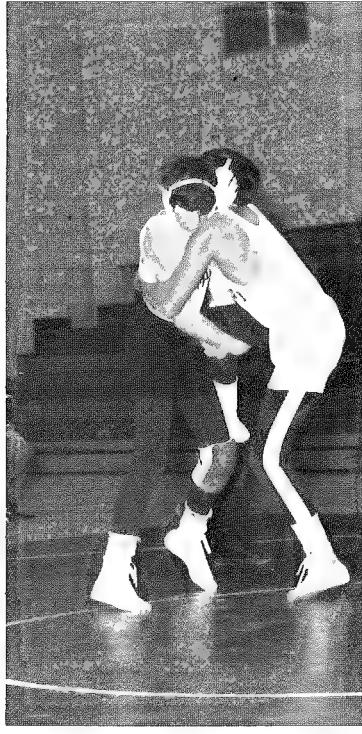

— Let's Hear It!"

Watch The Birdie

In their first year,
Bulkeley girls'
Badminton team Captures the City championship,
Compiling a phenomenal
4-0 record.
With singles and Doubles victories
Smashing them to A winning CCIL match
At Bristol Eastern,
The girls will Sail back to Next year's finals.

Hartford's where it's happening

Hartford's where it's happening... in human understanding, in art, in history, in social progress, in all-round living.

An evening at the Opera or the Stage Company or the Symphony is enriching. Neighborhood groups, Community Renewal Team, Revitalization Corps and others give reason for hope and a brighter future. The Atheneum is thousands of years of living art at our doorstep. The Mark Twain Memorial, the Children's Museum, Regional Advisory Committee and others contribute to the benefit of the Greater Hartford community.

We hope you like our "Hartford's where it's happening" messages on radio.

The Hartford Insurance Group is proud to be a part of all this... of our city's history, its today and its future.

"We've all come To look for America . . . "

Simon / Garfunkel

On city streets,
In parks,
On plazas,
We are gathering
To question and
To answer the World around us.

Why these problems?

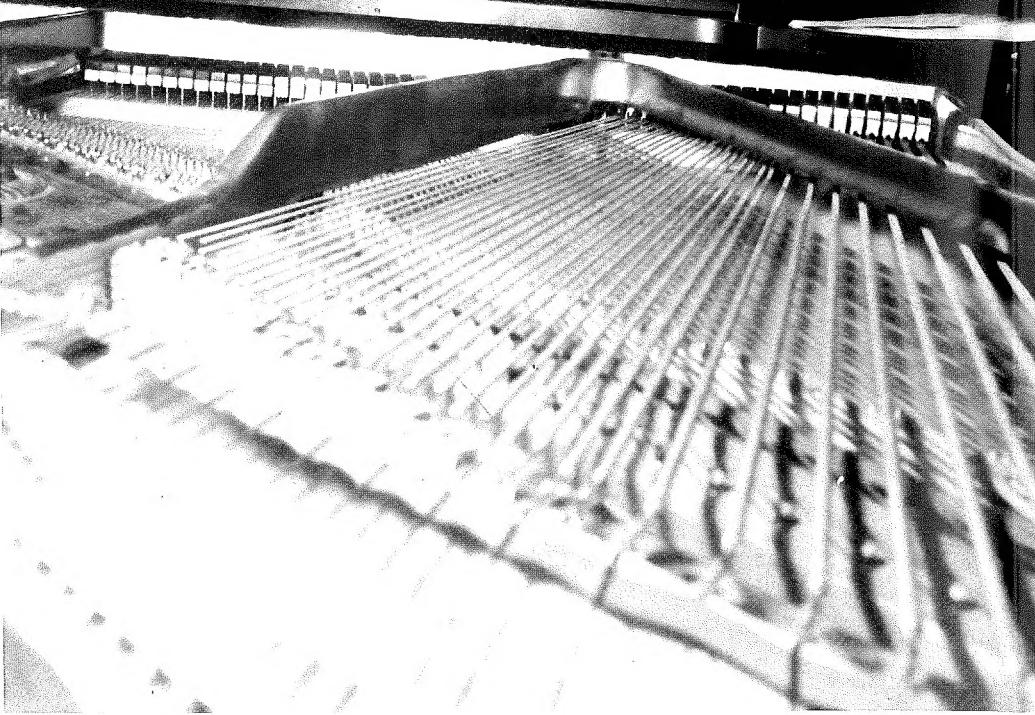

- Pollution,
- Over-population.

Why these injustices?

- Vietnam,
- Chicago.

Is our generation truly
"The last, Best chance?"

We are blooming
Now in youth,
Not yet sitting Old and quiet
On park benches.
We play the Chords of life
With energy.

Though we,
As graduates,
Will be barred
From Bulkeley's Shelter,
We are ready
To meet
The world
With understanding—
We are ready
To carry through Our peaceful Revolutions.

Working with
(And sometimes against) Each other,
We have tried
To represent
These four years
As the unique,
Exciting, active,
Personal time
It was—
For us
Of the staff
As well as
For you
Of the class.
With the sincere Hope that 1970 Graduates
Will look back
On these years
And this book
With joy,
We thank our Friends, co-workers
And patient advisor
For seeing us
Through this Revolution.
